FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Stranger Factory art space is proud to present its July 2012 exhibition:

Phil Noto's *A Certain Splendor

July 6 – July 30, 2012

Opening Reception: Friday, July 6, 6-9pm

Artist will be in attendance

It's all in the details: the way he holds his jacket over his shoulder; the purse of her lips when aroused and wanting more. It's a glint in the eyes or a crossing of arms. Comic book artist and painter Phil Noto is a master of subtlety; of revealing a subject's true character through minute detail and candid expression.

His newest body of work, A Certain Splendor, is a collection of paintings highlighting the aesthetic of the 1960s and '70s. From casual moments, to vintage pinups, to images of things to come, these paintings feature beautiful women, handsome men, hard-boiled characters and the upper-class of a bygone era.

ARTIST BIO:

Phil Noto is an American comic book artist and painter whose work has been featured in numerous DC, Marvel and Dark Horse titles including Avengers, Batman, Batgirl, Jonah Hex and X-Men Origins. His fine art has been exhibited throughout the US.
